

Very often the past simple ends in -ed (regular verbs):

- The police stopped me on my way home last night.
- I work in a travel agency now. Before that I worked in a department store.
- We invited them to our party, but they decided not to come.
- Laura passed her exam because she studied very hard.

But many verbs are irregular. The past simple does not end in -ed. For example:

- Mozart wrote more than 600 pieces of music.
- We saw Tanya in town a few days ago.
- I went to the cinema three times last week.
- It was cold, so I shut the window.

In questions and negatives we use did/didn't+ infinitive (enjoy/see/go etc.):

- Did you go out last night?
- Yes, I went to the cinema, but I didn't enjoy the film much.
- 'When did MrThomas die?' 'About ten years ago.'
- They didn't invite us to the party, so we didn't go.
- 'Did you have time to do the shopping?' 'No, I didn't.'

In the following examples, do is the main verb in the sentence (did ... do I didn't do):

- What did you do at the weekend? (not What did you at the weekend?)
- I didn't do anything. (not I didn't anything)

The past of be (am/is/are) is was/were:

Note that we do not use did in negatives and questions with was/were:

- I was angry because they were late.
- Was the weather good when you were on holiday?
- They weren't able to come because they were so busy.
- Did you go out last night or were you too tired?
